CONTENTS

Main Report

BACKGROUND

1. This report provides an update on learning and development related issues for the Police and Crime Panel.

LEARNING & DEVELOPMENT TO DATE

2. As always, the Panel would like to give thanks to the OPCC for their continued support for the Budget Working Group, Performance Lead Member meetings and general PCP support.

OPCC Public Accountability Board (PAB) meetings

3. As part of the Induction Members were provided with information on the Public Accountability Board (PAB), and the Panel should have started to receive the agenda packs for meetings direct to their inbox. Future meeting dates were included in the Induction pack but are provided at Item 14 of this agenda pack.

As a reminder, if any Member wishes to observe the PAB meeting, could they please notify Andrew Shirt. It is recommended you attend if at all possible, or go through the agenda pack, as this will provide you with additional operational information that will be of help to you in your role on the Panel.

The next PAB meeting is scheduled for Friday 14 October 2022 at 9:00 am, at Carbrook House, Carbook Hall Road, Sheffield, S9 2EH.

EVENTS & FUTURE PROPOSALS

5. The following events have taken place since the last meeting:

Virtual Workshop Session with Frontline Consulting - 20 October 2022.

The attendance was as follows: Cllr Rukhsana Haleem, Cllr Janine Moyes, Cllr Cynthia Ransome and Cllr Sue Knowles, together with the Panel's Support Officer.

The Workshop session provided an induction for recently appointed Members to the Police and Crime Panel, including a refresh for existing Panel Members. It also provided an additional opportunity to discuss the Panel's role and remit, work programme and the challenges facing the PCP in the coming year.

Frontline Consulting – Annual Police, (Fire) and Crime Panels Conference on 10 - 11 November 2022 – Scarman House, Warwick Conference Centre and online. Online attendance was as follows: Cllr Janine Moyes, Cllr Cynthia Ransome and Cllr Roger Davison, together with the Panel's Support Officer.

The Plenary session was chaired by Vicky Newbury, Chair of the Derbyshire Police and Crime Panel, and included other Panel members:

- Dr Sarah Charman, Professor of Criminology at the University of Portsmouth and Editor-in-Chief, International Journal of Law, Crime and Justice.
- Chris Excell, exChair, Black Police Association at Metropolitan Police (2021-2022) and Police Inspector at Metropolitan Police.
- Sal Naseem, Regional Director for London, Independent Office for Police Conduct.

There were also a range of Workshops covering:

- Being a Critical Friend. Joining the dots. Facilitated by Jim Haylett, Chief Executive, Cambridgeshire and Peterborough OPCC.
- The Financial Impact on Policing. Where do we go from here? Facilitated by Paul D Grady, Director Grant Thornton and Iain Murray, Director Grant Thornton.
- Measuring Panel Performance. Facilitated by Colin Copus, Emeritus, Professor of Local Politics, De Montfort University.

Those who joined online may wish to provide feedback on the Conference.

Performance Induction Session and Discussion with the OPCC – 24 November 2022

The Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner kindly provided a Performance Induction Session and discussion to Members on 24 November 2022.

Budget Working Group – Virtual meeting 29 November 2022

The Budget Working Group received a report on the Consolidated Budget Monitoring Report 2022/23 as at 30 September 2022. There was also an update on the budget process for 2023/24.

6. The following event is proposed:

Future events (to be confirmed):

Budget Familiarisation Session – A full Panel Budget Familiarisation Session will be held in late January 2023. Further details on the time / venue etc will be circulated early in the New Year.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

7. Learning and Development has a cost attached to it – including Members’ travel and subsistence - but the Home Office Grant is provided for this purpose. For transparency, the utilisation of the Grant is published annually on the PCP website.
8. The mid-year submission was submitted to the Home Office on 25 October 2022 in line with the Grant Agreement.

LEGAL IMPLICATIONS

9. There are no direct legal implications arising from this report.

HEALTH AND SAFETY IMPLICATIONS

10. There are no direct health and safety implications arising from this report.

EQUALITY & DIVERSITY IMPLICATIONS

11. Learning and development is open to all, and necessary adjustments can be made to accommodate any requests associated with equality and diversity.
