Meeting Date	Minute No	Action/ Resolution	Who?	By when?	Status / Comments
06-06-22	11	Monitoring Delivery of the Police and Crime Plan – Quarterly Report (January to March 2022)
		i) The Commissioner had agreed to consider Cllr Milsom’s request to ascertain if there are any systems and mechanisms in place for gathering information locally from the Community Safety Partnerships and Neighbourhood Policing Teams to assess trend falls in anti-social behaviour correlating with rising crime numbers.	Commissioner		Update 29-06-22 There is 1 x CSP analyst for each CSP who collect, monitor and analyse data in line with CSP priorities and this is likely to include ASB related data and associated trends. The CSP analyst will work with all CSP partners to understand available data wider than provided by SYP. Councillors may wish to link in with their CSPs for further information. Suggest this is discharged. Update 10-10-22 (PCP Meeting) Councillor Milsom requested that the action remains on the Action Log. See action below. Update 25-11-22 The work of the CSPs and how Police and Crime Panel members link in with them was discussed at the Performance briefing. Suggest this is discharged. 05-12-22 PCP The Panel requested that this action remained live until Councillor Milsom was present to confirm she agreed that the action should be discharged. 03-02-23 PCP Update as above.
