Dear Dr Billings

Proposed Council Tax Precept 2021/22

At the meeting of the Police and Crime Panel held on Wednesday 3rd February 2021, Members unanimously voted to support the Council Tax Precept for 2020/21 and the minute from the meeting is as follows:

Item 9 - Proposed Council Tax Precept and Revenue Budget for 2021/22

A report of the Chief Finance Officer, OPCC was presented to notify the Police and Crime Panel of the South Yorkshire Police and Crime Commissioner's proposed Council Tax precept for 2021/22.

The Chair, Councillor Nevett referred to the recommendation in the report which asked the Police and Crime Panel to consider a proposed annual increase in Council Tax precept for 2021/22 of £15.00 for a Band D property. This would take the Council Tax to £213.04 for the year for a Band D property. This equates to an annual increase of £10.00 for a Band A property (19 pence per week) and £11.66 for a Band B property (22 pence per week). Most properties in South Yorkshire are in Band A (58%) and Band B (17%).

A recorded vote was taken and recorded as follows:-

For accepting the proposed increase in Council Tax precept for 2021/22 – (12) Councillors Nevett, Sansome, Cherryholme, Garbutt, Grocutt, Otten, Pickering, Short, Steinke, Wilkinson, Mr A Carter and Professor A James.

Against the proposed increase (0) and abstained (0).

The proposal was approved.

RESOLVED – That Members of the Police and Crime:-

Voted unanimously to accept the proposed annual increase in Council Tax precept for 2021/22 of £15.00 for a Band D property. This would take the Council Tax to £213.04 for the year for a Band D property. For Band A properties this equated to an annual increase of £10.00 (19 pence per week) and £11.66 for a Band B property (22 pence per week) be approved.

ii) Noted that most properties in South Yorkshire are in Band A (58%) and Band B (17%).

Yours sincerely

OA North
